Instructions

TIP: If your wood beads have large holes, try stringing 2–3 size 11 or smaller seed beads onto the head pin to fit inside the bead hole. Works great to eliminate wobble!

- Leaf chain: use 1 oval jump ring to attach 1 silver leaf link to 1 gold leaf link, then 1 copper link to the gold. Continue connecting leaf links, repeating silver—copper gold pattern twice more. Repeat to create second segment. Set aside.
- Acorn dangles: pick up 1 silver head pin and string on 1 silver scalloped bead cap, 1 wood bead (*see tip), and 1 silver acorn bead cap. At top of cap bend wire over

- at right angle. Use round nose pliers to form simple loop, trimming excess wire. Repeat with remaining head pins, caps and beads, matching metal finishes. Set aside.
- Charm dangles: open 1 round jump ring and string on 3 acorn charms — 1 silver, 1 copper and 1 gold. Close jump ring. Repeat with remaining round jump rings and charms. Set aside.
- 4. Cut one 2 ½" (12 links) length of chain.
- Use 1 oval jump ring to attach 1 charm dangle to first chain link.
 Open loop at top of 1 acorn dangle and attach to second chain link. Close loop.

- Repeat Step 5 five times, alternating acorn metal finishes.
 Attach final charm dangle to last chain link.
- Use 1 oval jump ring to attach 1 leaf chain segment at 1 end of focal segment. Position so that leaf tips will point downward. Repeat at other side.
- Cut remaining chain in half, then use 1 oval jump ring to attach 1 segment to 1 side of necklace.
 Repeat at other side.
- Use 1 oval jump ring to attach clasp ring at 1 side of necklace. Repeat at other side with clasp bar.
